CHAPTER-IV

PROCEDURE FOR RECRUITMENT

Determination of Vacancies

14. The appointing authority shall determine the number of vacancies to be filled during the year of recruitment and also the number of vacancies to be reserved for the persons belonging to the Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and other categories under rule (14). The vacancies to be filled by direct recruitment shall be notified in accordance with the rules or orders in force at the time of recruitment.

By direct recruitment (When recruitment is to be made through competitive examination)

- 15.(1) Application for permission to appear in the competitive examination shall be called by the Appointing authority of the Corporation or any other authority duly authorised for conducting competitive examination in the prescribed form, which will be made available through public advertisement.
- (2) No candidate shall be admitted to the examination unless he holds a certificate of admission, issued by the Appointing authority of the corporation.
- (3) After the results of the written examination has been received and tabulated, the Appointing authority shall, having regard to the need for securing due representation of the candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and others under Rule 11, summon for interview such number of candidates as, on the result of the written examination, have come up to the standard fixed by the competent authority of the corporation in this respect. The marks awarded to each candidate at the interview shall be added to the marks obtained by him in the written examination.

- (4) The Appointing / competent authority of the corporation shall prepare a list of candidates in order of their proficiency as disclosed by the aggregate of marks obtained by each candidate at the written examination and interview and recommend such number of candidates as they consider fit for appointment. If two or more candidates obtain equal marks in the aggregate, the name of the candidate obtaining higher marks in the written examination shall be placed higher in the list. The number of names in the lists shall be more (but not more than 25%) than the number of vacancies.

NOTE-The syllabus and rules for competitive examination shall be such as may be prescribed by the Corporation from time to time.

By direct recruitment
(When
recruitment is to be made otherwise than through Competition)

16. (1) Application for being considered for selection shall be called by the Appointing authority in the prescribed form, which will be made available through public advertisement.
- (2) The Appointing authority, shall having regard to the need for securing due representation of the candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and other categories in accordance with rule 11, call for interview such number of candidates, who fulfill the requisite qualifications, as they consider proper.
- (3) The Selection Committee constituted under annexure II shall prepare a list of candidates in order of their proficiency as disclosed by the marks obtained by each candidate in the interview. If two or more candidates obtain equal marks, the Selection Committee shall arrange their names in order of their seniority in age. The number of names in the list shall be more (but not more than 25%) than the number of the vacancies. The Selection Committee shall forward the list to the Appointing Authority.
- (4) The syllabus and the rules for the recruitment under this rule shall be such as may be prescribed by the appointing authority from time to time.

Procedure for recruitment
for promotion

17. (1) Recruitment by promotion shall be made on the basis of merit through the Selection Committee constituted under annexure III.
- (2) The Appointing Authority shall prepare an eligibility list of the candidates arranged in order of seniority, on the post from which promotion is to be made and to the extent of three times the number of vacancies;

Provided if the total number of eligible candidate is less than three times the number of vacancies, the list of actual eligible candidates will be prepared. Such list will be placed before the Selection Committee along with their character rolls and such other record, pertaining to them, as may be considered proper.

- (3) The Selection Committee shall consider the cases of candidates on the basis of the records, referred to in sub-rule (2).
- (4) The Selection Committee shall prepare a list of selected candidates arranged in order of merit and forward the same to the Appointing Authority. If more than one candidate obtain equal marks, the name of such candidates will be arranged on the basis of their seniority in the cadre from where they have been promoted.
- (5) The list so prepared on the basis of merit shall be deemed as the seniority list of the employees for future promotions.

Combined
select list

18. If in any year of recruitment appointment are made both by direct recruitment and by promotion, a combined select list shall be prepared by taking the names of candidates from the relevant lists; in such manner that the prescribed percentage is maintained, the first name in the list being of the person appointed by promotion.

Validity of Select List

19. The list of selected candidates shall remain valid for a period of one year from the date it is prepared by the Selection Committee and posts falling vacant during the period may be filled from amongst persons in the list in the order in which their names are arranged therein.

CHAPTER- V

APPOINTMENT, PROBATION, CONFIRMATION AND SENIORITY

- Appointment 20. (1) The appointing authority shall make appointment by taking the names of candidates in the order in which they stand in the lists prepared under rules, 15,16 or 17 as the case may be.
- (2) If more than one order of appointment are issued in respect of any one selection, a combined order shall also be issued, mentioning the names of the persons in order of seniority as determined in the selection or, as the case may be, as it stood in the cadre from which they are promoted. If the appointments are made both by direct recruitment and by promotion, names shall be arranged in accordance with the cyclic order, referred to in rule 23.

- Probation 21.
- (1) A person on appointment to a post or Service shall be placed on probation for a period of one year.
 - (2) The appointing authority may, for reasons to be recorded, extend the period of probation in individual cases specifying the date upto which the extension is granted.
 - (3) If it appears to the Appointing Authority at any time during or at the end of the period of probation or extended period of probation that a probationer has not made sufficient use of his opportunities or has otherwise failed to give satisfaction he may be reverted to his substantive post, if any, and if he does not hold a lien on any post, his services may be dispensed with.
 - (4) A probationer who is reverted or whose services are dispensed with under sub-rule (3) shall not be entitled to any compensation.
 - (5) The Appointing Authority may allow continuous service, rendered in an officiating or temporary capacity in a post included in the cadre or any other equivalent or higher post, to be taken into account for the purpose of computing the period of probation.

- Confirmation 22.
- A probationer shall be confirmed in his appointment at the end of the period of probation or the extended period of probation if:
- (a) his work and conduct is reported to be satisfactory.
 - (b) his integrity is certified, and
 - (c) the Appointing Authority is satisfied that he is otherwise fit for confirmation.

- Seniority 23.
- (1) Except as hereinafter provided, the seniority of persons in any category of post shall be determined from the date of the orders of substantive appointment and if two or more persons are appointed together, by such order in which their names are arranged in the appointment order:

Provided that if the appointment order specifies a particular back date with effect from which a person substantively appointed, that date, will be deemed to be the date of order of substantive appointment and, in other case, it will mean the date of issue of the order.

- (2) The seniority inter se of persons appointed directly on the result of any one selection shall be the same as determined by the Selection Committee:

be arranged in accordance with the cyclic order, referred to in rule 23.

- Probation 21. (1) A person on appointment to a post or Service shall be placed on probation for a period of one year.
- (2) The appointing authority may, for reasons to be recorded, extend the period of probation in individual cases specifying the date upto which the extension is granted.
- (3) If it appears to the Appointing Authority at any time during or at the end of the period of probation or extended period of probation that a probationer has not made sufficient use of his opportunities or has otherwise failed to give satisfaction he may be reverted to his substantive post, if any, and if he does not hold a lien on any post, his services may be dispensed with.
- (4) A probationer who is reverted or whose services are dispensed with under sub-rule (3) shall not be entitled to any compensation.
- (5) The Appointing Authority may allow continuous service, rendered in an officiating or temporary capacity in a post included in the cadre or any other equivalent or higher post, to be taken into account for the purpose of computing the period of probation.

Confirmation 22.

A probationer shall be confirmed in his appointment at the end of the period of probation or the extended period of probation if:

- (a) his work and conduct is reported to be satisfactory.
- (b) his integrity is certified, and
- (c) the Appointing Authority is satisfied that he is otherwise fit for confirmation.

Seniority

23. (1) Except as hereinafter provided, the seniority of persons in any category of post shall be determined from the date of the orders of substantive appointment and if two or more persons are appointed together, by such order in which their names are arranged in the appointment order:

Provided that if the appointment order specifies a particular back date with effect from which a person substantively appointed, that date, will be deemed to be the date of order of substantive appointment and, in other case, it will mean the date of issue of the order.

- (2) The seniority inter se of persons appointed directly on the result of any one selection shall be the same as determined by the Selection Committee:

Provided that a candidate recruited directly may lose his seniority if he fails to join without valid reasons when vacancy is offered to him. The decision of the appointing authority as to the validity of reasons shall be final.

- (3) The Seniority inter se of persons appointed by promotion shall be the same as prepared by the Selection Committee for the cadre and not of the cadre from which they were promoted.
- (4) Where appointments are made both by promotion and direct recruitment or from more than one source and the respective quota of the sources is prescribed, the inter se seniority shall be determined by arranging the names in a cyclic order in a combined list, prepared in accordance with Rule 18, in such manner that the prescribed percentage is maintained :

Provided that-

- (i) Where appointments from any source are made in excess of the prescribed quota, the persons appointed in excess of quota shall be pushed down, for seniority, to subsequent year or years in which there are vacancies in accordance with the quota.
- (ii) Where appointments from any sources fall short of the prescribed quota and appointments against such unfilled vacancies are made in subsequent year or years, the persons so appointed shall not get seniority of any earlier year but shall get the seniority of the year in which their appointments are made, so however, that in the combined list of that year, to be prepared under this Rule, their names shall be placed at the top followed by the names, in the cyclic order, of the other appointees.
- (iii) Where, in accordance with the rules or prescribed procedure, the unfilled vacancies from any source could, in the circumstances mentioned in the relevant rule or procedure be filled from the other source and appointment in excess of quota are so made, the persons so appointed shall get the seniority of that very year as if they are appointed against the vacancies of their quota.

- Preparation of Seniority List 24. (1) As soon as may be after appointments are made to a service, the appointing authority shall prepare a tentative seniority list of the persons appointed substantively to the service in accordance with the provisions of these rules.
- (2) The tentative seniority list shall be circulated amongst the persons concerned inviting objections, by a notice of reasonable period, which shall not be less than seven days from the date of circulation of the tentative seniority list.
- (3) No objections against the vires or validity of these rules shall be entertainable.
- (4) The appointing authority shall, after disposing of the objection by a reasoned order, issue a final seniority list.
- (5) It shall not be necessary to prepare a seniority list of the cadre to which appointments are made only by promotion from a single feeding cadre.

CHAPTER-VI SALARY ETC.

- Salary 25. (1) Salary etc. admissible to persons appointed to the various groups of posts in the service shall be such as may be determined by the Government from time to time.
- (2) Salary in form of Pay scales or lump sum package at the time of the commencement of these Rules shall be as indicated in Annexure I.
- (3) Terms & Conditions for deputation, pay protection and other benefits in case of deputation shall be, unless otherwise specifically determined by the State Government, the same as prescribed by the State Government from time to time.
- (4) Salary for contractual appointment shall be as indicated in Annexure-I (as package) and other terms & conditions shall be as determined by the appointing authority before inviting applications for contractual appointment.

CHAPTER-VII OTHER PROVISIONS

- Service Jurisdiction 26. An employee of the Corporation shall be liable to be transferred and posted to any place within India or abroad in connection with the affairs of the Corporation.

- Leave 27. Subject to the decisions of the Government/Board from time to time, the employees of the Corporation shall be entitled to different kinds of leave as are admissible to the State Government Servants, and relevant rules of the State Government to leave shall be applicable in this regard.
- Conduct Rules and Disciplinary Proceedings 28. Subject to the decisions of the Government/Board from time to time, the conduct rules and rules pertaining to disciplinary proceedings applicable to State Government employees shall be applicable to the employees of the Corporation.
- Superannuation 29. Subject to the decisions of the Government from time to time Superannuation age for the employees of the Corporation shall be such as is applicable to the State Government employees.
- Power to Relax 30. Where the Board is satisfied that the operation of any rules causes undue hardship in any particular case, it may, notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, applicable to the case, by resolution, dispense with or relax under approval of the Government, the requirement of the rules to such extent and subject to such conditions as it may consider necessary for dealing with the case in just and equitable manner, consistent or commensurate with the interests of the Corporation.
- Interpretation 31. The power to interpret the rules vests in the Managing Director who may issue such administrative instructions as may be necessary to give effect to and carry out the purpose of the provisions of these rules, provided that in case of any doubt or controversy about the interpretation of these rules, Managing Director may refer it to the Board/Government, whose decision shall be final and binding.
